FOR ALL YOU MOM'S OUT THERE

1. Motherhood is a fairytale in reverse. You start in a beautiful gown end up cleaning everyone's messes.
2. Being a mom to a teenager will make you understand why some animals eat their young.
3. It's sad when you sit around waiting for mom to make dinner and then you realize you are the mom.
4. There's nothing quite like being told I'm wrong by someone who depends on me for food, clothing, & shelter.
5. Nothing is lost until mom can't find it.
6. I want to be a Pinterest mom, but I'm more of an Amazon Prime mom.
7. "I told my mom I thought parenting got easier as the kids get older and she laughed so hard she cried a little."
8. "My tween is mad at me and it could be because of any of the horrible things I did this morning: stood in the kitchen, poured coffee, stared out the window, said good morning, breathed..."
9. Kids make a lot of plans for people who can't drive anywhere.
10. I don't want to sleep like a baby. I want to sleep like my husband.
11. "That's it. I'm selling my kid on eBay." "Don't be silly! You made him. Sell him on Etsy."
12. That feeling when your kid threatens not to talk to you for the rest of the day.
13. When you finally have time for a girls' night and realize your entire wardrobe went out of style in 2003.
14. When your teenager asks for personal space and you remind her that she came out of your personal space.
15. I asked to switch seats on a plane because I was next to a crying baby. Evidently that doesn't work if the baby is yours.
16. "Mom, what's it like to have the greatest daughter in the world?" "I don't know, ask your grandma!"
17. "A police recruit was asked during the exam, 'What would you do if you had to arrest your own mother?' He said, 'Call for backup.'"
