JUST A TAP ON THE SHOULDER

A passenger in a taxi leaned over to ask the driver a question and gently tapped him on the shoulder to get his attention.

The driver screamed, lost control of the cab, nearly hit a bus, drove up over the curb and stopped just inches from a large plate glass window.

For a few moments everything was silent in the cab.

Then, the still shaking driver said, 'Are you OK? I'm so sorry, but you scared the daylight out of me.'

The badly shaken passenger apologized to the driver and said he didn't realize that a mere tap on the shoulder would startle the driver so badly.

The driver replied, 'No, no, I'm the one who is sorry, it's entirely my fault. Today is my very first day driving a cab... I've been driving a hearse for the past 25 years.'

TRAFFIC CAMERA

Sent in by Maggio customer aurora2007

My husband was driving when he saw the flash of a traffic camera. He figured that his picture had been taken for exceeding the limit even though he knew he was not speeding

Just to be sure, he went around the block and passed the same spot, driving even slower, but again the camera flashed.

Now he began to think this was quite funny so he drove even slower as he passed the area once more, but the traffic camera flashed again.

He tried a fourth and fifth time with the same results and was now laughing as the camera flashed while he rolled past at a snail's pace.

Two weeks later, he got five tickets in the mail for driving without a seatbelt.
