THE WINNER OF THE FREE DINNER FOR 2 ON VALENTINE'S DAY IS.....

Dina Simons and her hubby Jason from Bensalem!

Thanks to all who sent in their How We Met stories. There were so many great stories and it was really difficult to choose the best one. But in truth, they were all the best because they happened to you!

Years ago, while going through the trials of dating, my mother would say "You will meet someone when you are 35, just wait". At the time, I didn't understand how she could know or why she would pick that age, but would reply "But why can't it happen now???" Looking back, she was right! It was 9 months after my mother passed away in 2008 and 1 month after my 35th birthday when I re-connected with a high school classmate through Facebook. She and I decided to meet for lunch and discussed what we've been up to since graduation. After I got home, I received a voicemail from her suggesting since I wasn't dating anyone, if I wanted to possibly meet her neighbor's brother. She had only met him once at a NYE party, but thought we had a lot in common. She suggested that I look at his FB profile and if interested, to let her know. That night, while viewing his FB profile, I noticed something else we had in common. His birthday was the same date my mother passed. In was in that moment through tears and a tug in my heart, I called her and told her I was interested. Our first date was on Friday, February 13th and contrary to popular belief, it was the "luckiest" day of my life! He picked me up from work, and we went to the Philadelphia Art Museum to listen to live jazz followed by dinner and some fun at Dave & Busters on the waterfront. It was a night I will never forget! The night left me smiling for days and it wasn't until our second date, at the Philadelphia Flower Show, that I noticed another sign from my mother, his license plate was her old address. Needless to say, there have been countless signs from my late mother since the day we met that only confirms to us that we were created for one another! Jason has been, and continues to be, such a blessing to me and my family, and I am so thankful to have him in my life! Jason proposed on 11/26/11, we were married on 5/18/13, and to this day, we celebrate every Friday the 13th together!

Fascinating, eerie and romantic all at the same time, don't you think? On the other hand, Mom knows best!

Hope you all had a Happy Valentine's Day!
